I. King Jordan Chair in Leadership	The I. King Jordan Chair in Leadership will guarantee that Dr. Jordan's legacy remains a permanent part of Gallaudet. The privately-funded Jordan Chair will provide opportunities for scholars, educators, and successful leaders to come to the University to create and share new knowledge in strategic areas and disciplines that are important, not only to President Jordan, but to deaf people around the world. The body of knowledge produced by the scholars who hold the Jordan Chair will greatly advance our understanding about the potential impact of a number of issues critical to the next generation of deaf and hard of hearing people. In addition, the unique and high quality research produced by Jordan Chair scholars will provide world-wide recognition for Gallaudet and further enhance its reputation within higher education circles. Candidates for the I. King Jordan Chair must exhibit scholarly expertise in one or more of the following academic areas related to the lives of deaf and hard of hearing people: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • International and/ or domestic advocacy • The development and maintenance of organizations that are inclusive and recognize the diversity among deaf and hard of hearing people. These organizations must acknowledge and value the reality that there are many ways to be deaf in today's world. • The study and implementation of organizational and societal changes that provide bridges between diverse constituencies and among deaf, hard of hearing, and hearing people. • The study of literacy • The study and application of psychology 	Leadership	Both	Anywhere	Research
