Clinton Church

28 years at MSSD and counting

The Class of 2017 dedicates this yearbook to Clint Church. He is a man known to be selfless and generous. He is capable of spreading of spreading positive vibes in any environment he is in, which makes an impact on the students and staff surrounding him. His humor and habit of saying hello with his pinky finger and a laugh or a smile to everyone he passes by inspires people's day to be brighter. Clint always contribute so much to this environment of living and education that our class wants to return the recognition and love to him as much we can! Thank you for everything you do and for your continuous support and positivity.
